CDM ELECTRONICS SIGNS GLOBAL DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT WITH TIMES MICROWAVE SYSTEMS

Turnersville, NJ, December 20, 2004...CDM Electronics, Inc., a leading distributor of commercial and military (MIL-SPEC) interconnect products, and premier provider of value-added contract manufacturing services has signed a worldwide distribution agreement with Times Microwave Systems (TMS), a leading global manufacturer of interconnect devices. Under the terms of the agreement, CDM will stock and distribute TMS's full product offering, including the LMR® family of RF transmission line cable assemblies and SilverLine™ cable assemblies for test and interconnect applications.

According to Carmen DeLeo, Jr., general manager of CDM, "We're very pleased to add a manufacturer of Times Microwave's caliber to our existing line card. This addition further demonstrates CDM's commitment to satisfy customers' needs for a single-source interconnect solution as TMS's products broaden our extensive portfolio of RF connectors, and cable assemblies."

Lou Caruso, sales manager of TMS stated, "This agreement allows us to expand our market share through CDM's sales channels while ensuring our customers receive the utmost in support and service. When selecting distributors, we look for organizations that complement our superior RF application engineering capabilities, as well as share our commitment to quality. CDM is a proven, exact fit to our requirements."
