

CDM Electronics Now Stocks Over
5-million Connectors and Cable
Assemblies for Same Day Shipping

TURNERSVILLE, N.J. - CDM Electronics, a premier authorized distributor of electronic connectors and cables, has an extensive inventory of connectors, cable assemblies and accessories from worldwide electronics leaders for same-day shipping.

CDM has a 24,000 square foot facility with over 5,000,000 connectors, cables, and accessories on the shelves. New for 2012 is an additional 7,500 square feet of storage space to accommodate nearly 100,000 more stocked parts. Orders entered before 4PM EST for in-stock items will be shipped the same day, and CDM's website stock levels are refreshed every night for easy, accurate online shopping.

"We're proud to maintain such extensive inventory to help our customers when they need their parts immediately," said CDM Electronics Director of Operations Lori Maeder. "CDM stocks the most trusted names in the interconnect world, and our award-winning service assures orders are handled efficiently and with the utmost of care."

CDM stocks products from such manufacturers as Amphenol, Conec, Cooper Interconnect, Corsair, Delta Electronics, Kings Electronics, Sumitomo, Times Microwave and Winchester Electronics. CDM is a long-standing member of the electronics industry watchdog organization NEDA (now ECIA) that assures inventoried parts are new, genuine, and handled and stored in accordance with manufacturers' quality standards.
