Christina Harrison Promoted to Product Manager
For CDM Electronics

Turnersville, NJ, October 19, 2018... CDM Electronics has announced the promotion of Christina Harrison to Product Manager at the Turnersville, NJ, global headquarters. In this new position Christina will draw upon her product knowledge to administrate purchasing and inventory management functions for new and current products, along with providing support and resources to achieve bookings, revenue and profitability objectives for her lines. Christina will expand upon and strengthen CDM's relationship with her supplier base, along with coordinating product training and skills-building programs for Sales and Business Development team members. Christina joined CDM in 2012 as a Sales Assistant and was promoted in 2014 to Sales Representative for CDM's Western region and East Coast distribution partners. Christina has also actively helped train new Sales team members in all CDM sales offices. Christina's can-do attitude is part of her personality, as she was a champion track and field athlete for the University of Maryland and currently coaches a community-based cheer squad and track team. Christina is a resident of Sicklerville, NJ, with her husband and three children.
