CDM Electronics Now Market Leader in Tactical Communications Power Connectors

Turnersville, NJ, July 26, 2022... CDM Electronics has announced an expanded inventory program for tactical communications interconnects at their Turnersville, NJ distribution location.

CDM now has over 100 different tactical communications (taccom) power interconnects available to support the power requirements of virtually every military and public safety radio platform. An updated inventory program has over 32,000 taccom power connectors in stock at their 130 American Boulevard location.

"Maintaining the industry's largest inventory of taccom power interconnects from all QPL'd manufacturers is a rewarding undertaking" said Christina Harrison, Materials Manager at CDM, "as we can meet virtually any customer requirement needed. CDM is now a truly one-stop source." CDM is a full-line distributor of the most current MIL-DTL-55181 interconnects from Amphenol PCD, Eaton, and Power Connector Inc. along with specialty taccom power connectors.
