Dawn Falisi Promoted to Vice President of Materials and Operations

Turnersville, NJ, April 2, 2024... CDM Electronics, a full-line authorized interconnect distributor and value-added manufacturer, has announced the promotion of Dawn Falisi to Vice President of Materials and Operations for CDM's Turnersville, New Jersey facilities. Dawn will be based out of the Turnersville corporate headquarters. In this new position Dawn will be responsible for overseeing the material and operations departments to ensure company goals and objectives are met. Dawn will coordinate the development and implementation of departmental objective roadmaps to include new product launches, existing product growth opportunities, new manufacturing capabilities or initiatives and optimizing development of CDM's employee base. Dawn joined CDM in 2006 and has held various materials and operations positions within the company, most recently having been promoted to Chief Operating Officer. When not at work, Dawn can be found at field hockey games cheering on her daughters or relaxing on her boat.
